

CANYON CREEK BAPTIST CHURCH

richardson, texas

For the Canyon Creek Baptist Church in Richardson, Texas, Stromberg Architectural manufactured traditional Roman Corinthian columns to add beauty to the exterior and interior of the worship center. These columns incorporate the majestic look of traditional columns with the long lasting properties of GFRP.

Stromberg offers a variety of columns following the five traditional orders of architecture: Tuscan, Doric, Ionic, Corinthian and Composite, as well as custom designed columns.
